

St. John's Church also provides a fully stocked library and resource center for the use of all of our congregation members. Our library is stocked with both fiction and non-fiction current and former best sellers for loan. Our resource center has faith based books, and teaching materials available for use.

